Legislative Report: Keep a watch on any Bills already filed or any new Bills being filed. A list of Bills filed as of 2/1/2021 was provided in the January minutes report.

If anybody hears of any new bills filed that would affect Sportsmen and Sportswomen, Please notify President Johnson.

Massachusetts Conservation Alliance: No report

Old Business: No old business

New Business: President Johnson sent an E mail to all delegates with A Proposed Fee Schedule being considered by Mass. Wildlife. They are proposing large increases in licenses, Stamps, Hunting Permits, and Trapping licenses, permits, and registration numbers. Please review this information and provide feedback to Mass. Wildlife.

The town of Wareham is considering a zoning change to create a Hospitality district that would negatively impact the Red Brook area and Lyman Preserve area. We are asking area Clubs, Sportsmen and Sportswomen, and especially Wareham residents to write a letter to the Planning Board in opposition to this change. Letters need to be received before the March Board meeting. Contact President Johnson, Secretary Birch, or Delegate Art Cabral for more information.

Thank You to Art Cabral for bringing this issue to our attention.

Annual Banquet: Our annual banquet that was scheduled on April 24, 2021 at Camp Kiwanee in Hanson, Mass. Has been canceled.

We have booked Camp Kiwanee for April 23, 2022 to hold our Banquet. More details will be provided in the coming Months.

Good of the Order: All gun shows scheduled for 2021 have been canceled. The Boxborough Sportsmen show has been moved to the NH Outdoor Expo. Hampshire Dome, 39 Emerson Rd. Milford NH. Show dates are March 12,13, and 14, 2021. The Standish Sportsmen Show has been postponed until a later date.

Adjournment: All Monthly meetings have been canceled until further notice. President Johnson will send out a robo call to all Delegates when we can resume our meetings.

I will continue to send out a report each month with any information that is received.

PCLS Secretary

Ed Birch
